I am an UK based Japanese actress, facilitator and coach. I have worked in corporate roleplay sector since 2001. I am mature, presentable and able to gain confidence and respect. I am a conscientious, dedicated and a reliable individual with an excellent time management skills. I enjoy a challenging position and am able to maintain the highest level of professionalism and confidentiality. I am flexible and adaptable with an open approach to changes and challenges within the professional environment. I can command a room with my confident and warm coaching and presenting skills.

I am fluent in both English and Japanese.

I have delivered the training sessions for Phillip Morris International, Duetsche Bank, JP Morgan, Morgan Stanley, Barclay's Global Investors, Credit Suiss, Goldman Sacks, ING, Bank of Tokyo Mitsubishi, Virgin Media, United Nations, National Grid, National School of Government, Deloitte, Earnest & Young and more.

I have experiences in one-to-one coaching, facilitation, forum theatre, bespoke roleplay and filming corporate training videos.

The subjects that I have experience training are; diversity & inclusivity, feedback skills, personal impact, management skill, influence & communication & unconscious bias.

I am passionate about the subject of diversity, equality and inclusivity, and have set up my private coaching practice to empower and champion people who are under-represented and advocate their representation in their industries.
